THE FIVE

LUMINOUS PETAL TEA Built around Earl Grey. Herbs and citrus to open, herbal spice and musk through the middle, vanilla and moss at the base. Bright, but not sweet.

WHITE TEA DEL MAR Bright and coastal. Citrus and florals to open, jasmine, lavender and sea breeze through the middle, wood and musk at the base. The one to reach for in warm weather.

VERDANT ZEN BREW Green and garden like. Citrus and a little spice to open, then it turns earthy and stays there. Quiet, and longer lasting than the opening suggests.

GRASGRÓINN Green and clean, with warmth underneath. Spice and cut grass to open, settling into ozone, jasmine and musk, and finishing on vanilla and soft wood. It wears close rather than loud.

OUD ABSOLU The dark one. Bergamot and iris over wood to open, citrus and ylang ylang through the middle, oud and sweet wood at the base. The heaviest thing we make and the one that lasts longest.

THE NAME

Written HOUSE OF ZIGGIMAY, in capitals, in running text as well as in headlines. Not in title case, and not shortened to the second word on its own. The perfumer is Sigurd Rossel. Grasgróinn keeps its accent.
